

removes temporary outputs from the output window below shows this user guide image (i.e. description of this interface) run each of the processes that are selected by the checkboxes in the order shown below checkbox. select to add script process to batch execution name of processes (scripts) to execute. click on them to open options dialogue